WARNING

This document contains information affecting the national security of the United States within the meaning of the espionage laws U. S. Code Title 18, Sections 793, 794 and 798. The law prohibits its transmission or the revelation of its contents in any manner to an unauthorized person, as well as its use in any manner prejudicial to the safety or interest of the United States or for the benefit of any foreign government to the detriment of the United States. It is to be seen only by personnel especially indoctrinated and authorized to receive information in the designated control channels. Its security must be maintained in accordance with regulations pertaining to the TALENT-KEYHOLE and Communications Intelligence Controls. No action is to be taken on any communications intelligence which may be contained herein, regardless of the advantage to be gained, if such action might have the effect of revealing the existence and nature of the source, unless such action is first approved by the appropriate authority.

11 August 1959

(Addressees: Each Member of the DCI
Ad Hoc Panel on the Soviet ICBM Program)

Dear

The Director of Central Intelligence has asked me to convey to you his sincere appreciation that you have consented to be a member of his Consultants' Panel on the Soviet ICBM problem. He believes that intelligence has today no more critical a question to resolve than that concerning the status of the Soviet ICBM. All related evidence will be made available for your review and consideration.

The Panel members, in full, are as listed below:

25X1A5a1

[REDACTED]
Major General John B. Medaris, US Army Ballistic
Missile Agency

25X1A5a1

[REDACTED]
Rear Admiral W. F. Raborn, USN, Director of Special Projects

25X1A5a1

[REDACTED]
Major General Ormond J. Ridgland, Ballistic
Missile Division, ARDC

Attached hereto is a copy of the Panel Agenda (with Annex A) for the 2½ day session. By concensus of the Panel members, the dates of 24, 25 and 26 August 1959 were selected for the meeting.

Should you desire any other information prior to the meeting or if any other assistance can be rendered, please let me know either by letter to the Central Intelligence Agency, 2430 E Street, N.W., Washington, D. C., or by phone to Executive 3-6115, Extension 8257.

Sincerely yours,

[REDACTED]
Secretary
